Legion Family: The New Year has started and we have had a great beginning. I want to thank the fabulous group of Legionnaires, Auxiliary, SAL, and Legion Riders that completed the tedious job of checking the rosters and updating the membership roles on New Years Day in record time. All was completed and back to normal in about 3 hours. What a way to spend the holiday! Thanks again gang. The month did not slow down. We had a great Chili Cook-off (even if the weather did not cooperate), super Lasagna Dinner (if I lose the "Biggest Loser" contest I am blaming the Auxiliary, just kidding ladies), and a wonderful time supporting our Oratorical Contest nominee at the District competition (more about that next month). This month will also be extremely busy. The Mid-Winter Conference in Austin is being held this first weekend and we have five Post members attending. We will be having our annual Super Bowl party and the Four Chaplains Ceremony is scheduled later in the month. Please check (Continued on page 2)

Auxiliary News

Winter has officially arrived in Converse! Along with the cold, the rains came and caused a big inconvenience during the CASA Chili Cook-off weekend. Our spirits were not dampened thanks to all who "bailed" us out. The Auxiliary Silent Auction and Raffle was very successful again this year. Candy Zavala served as chairman and did a fantastic job. Thanks to all who donated goods and their time, Ada for the Cake Walk, Irene for the beautiful Raffle baskets, Tracy and Rosemary for the Chili cooks prizes and Georgia who kept everything running smoothly all weekend. Thanks to our Department of Texas Auxiliary President, Robbi, for being a Chili Judge and surviving. Our Lasagna Dinner was well attended and the meal was great as always. Thanks to Pat, Georgia and crew. Mid Winter Conference is the 3-5th of February in Austin. There is still time if you wish to go. The Four Chaplains Ceremony will be held on Sunday, 25th of Feb. in the hall. (Continued on page 2)
