Legion Family: The past month, February, was not only busy but also very successful. The Mid-Winter Conference in Austin was well attended by our Post 593 family and I am sure that all found the information useful. The Super Bowl party was a lot of fun and well attended, my hats off to the H&E committee for the great job they did. Our Post Chaplain arranged and conducted a fabulous Four Chaplains Ceremony that is better every year. I never grow weary of this somber and soul lifting event. Our new (used) coolers and smoke eaters were installed, thanks to Denny Taylor and a host of skilled volunteers. Lastly, we held our Building Committee kickoff, more on that in a moment. This month is no different with the District Membership Tour, 3rd Division Convention, meetings, committees, and Spring Vacation. Please review the attached calendar and our website for all of the latest events. I promised last month to stand up our Building Committee, have a charter reviewed and approved by (Continued on page 2)

Auxiliary News

This year is really moving right along...March already? As usual it is another busy month with Girls State interviews, 20th District membership tour and the 20th District Convention, plus the Post and Auxiliary activities and meetings. Check your newsletter calendar for dates and times. We had a great turnout for the Mid-Winter Conference in Austin. Several Post and Auxiliary members attended the American Legion Extension Course conducted by Post Commander Nick Mills and 20th District Adjutant Karen Paris. They did an excellent job! As you may have heard or read, our Post is in dire need of a new building. A Building Committee has been formed and has met in February. I encourage all Auxiliary members to get involved in this important undertaking. It will take all Post and Unit members to make it work. The Committee meeting dates will be on the calendar, so plan to attend. Auxiliary members: sad to report that our members are not renewing in a timely manner. (Continued on page 2)
