Our election of officer's was conducted 7 June, and the voting process was accomplished very efficiently thanks to our voting committee. We had significant support from everyone that worked the voting process including Darryl Waldrop, Dick Bray, Marty Frank, Joanne Joslin, Ken Eckert, Larry Cobley, and our post home manager, Frank Yruegas.

The membership has spoken and your elected officials are to be congratulated. Get involved in your post, attend meetings, make suggestions and by all means support your elected officers. I am sure they will endeavor to satisfy the needs and requirements of the general membership. The task to serve the Post, Community, American Legion, Department, and National is a large undertaking and time consuming. Here are the new Post 593 officers and members-at-large for 2006-2007. Thank you all for re-electing me your President. With your support we can make the coming year both fun and productive. I am especially pleased that four of our new officers are also new members. That is what the Unit needs.

All nine Girl State candidates made it to Girls State on June 13th. We look forward to hearing their reports in October. (Continued on page 2)
